

Trick or Treat

without TROUBLE

Halloween is trick or treat time.

But not everybody gives treats.

Some people play tricks.

Not fun tricks — but nasty tricks
that can hurt people.

Be sure nobody plays a nasty trick on you this Halloween.

Read these rules.

Talk them over with your parents
or another adult you trust.

Then make sure you and your friends follow the rules.

Get treats, not tricks, this Halloween.

7. Don't eat
food you receive trick or treating until
your parents have checked
it over.

8. Dress in light-colored costumes that are easy to see at night. Make sure your costume is loose
enough for you to move easily and quickly.

1. Trick or treat only in well-lighted areas.

2. Use face paint instead of masks. Masks can keep you from seeing what is going on around you.

3. Take your mother or father or another grownup with you trick or treating.

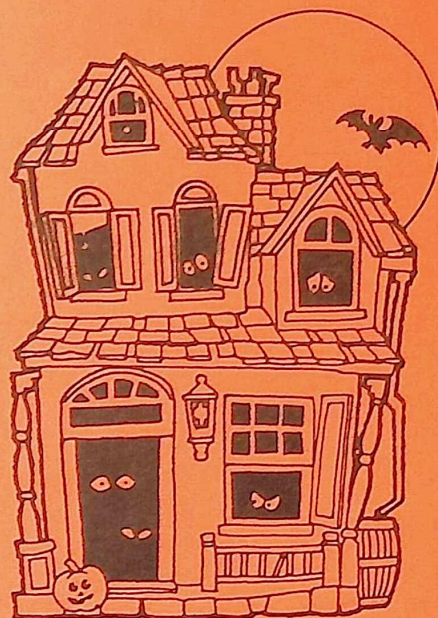

4. If you are old enough to trick or treat without a grownup along, go with a group of friends. Don't go out alone.

5. Go only to houses that have lights on to welcome trick or treaters.

6. Trick or treat only in your own neighborhood.

7. Don't eat food you receive to trick or treating. Give your part of it over.

8. Dress in costume. See at night. Your costume should be easy to see.
